

Task:

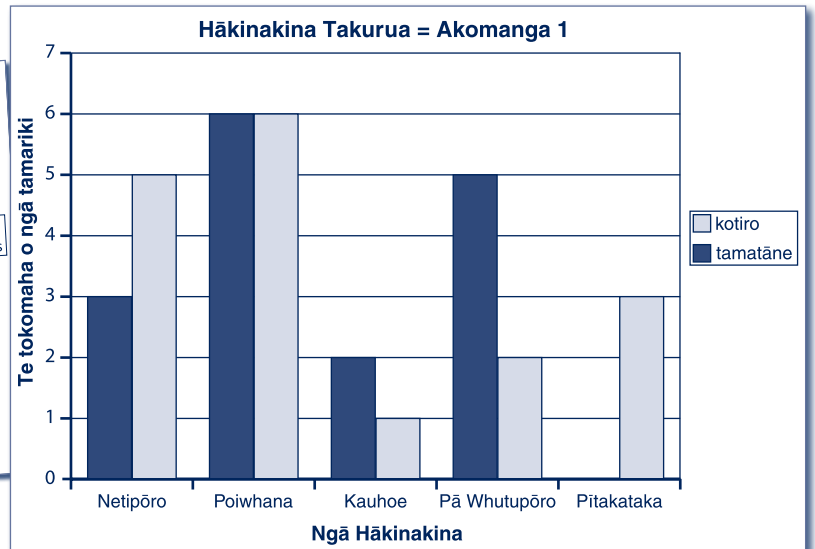

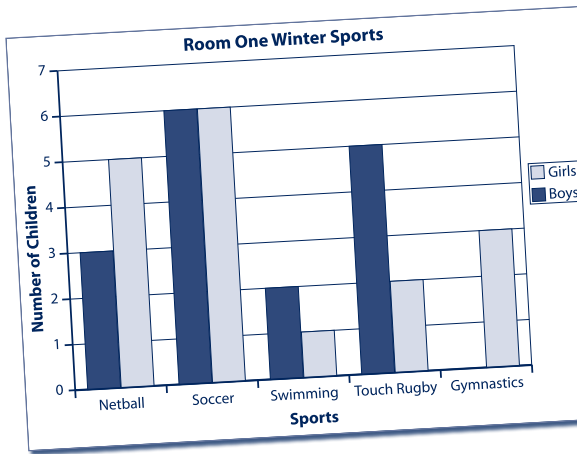

Ngā Hākinakina Takurua — Room One Winter Sports

Approach: Station

Focus: Interpreting a graph

Resources: Graph in recording book

Kupu:

Questions / instructions:

Titiro ki te kauwhata. E whakaaturia ana ngā hākinakina takurua o ngā tamariki o tētahi akomanga.

Look at the graph. It shows the sports that children in Room One play in the winter.

1. He aha ētahi kōrero e rua mō te poiwhana e whakaaturia ana ki te kauwhata?

What are two things this graph tells you about soccer?

the same number of boys and girls play soccer

13

six boys play soccer

36

six girls play soccer

31

soccer is most popular (for boys, girls, both)

2

2. Ko ēhea ngā hākinakina he tokomaha kē atu ngā kōtiro e tākarō ana i te hunga tamatāne?

Which sports do girls play more than boys?

netipōro (netball)

71

pītakataka (gymnastics)

13

3. He tokomaha kē atu ngā tama e tākarō pā whutupōro ana i ngā kōtiro. E hia te tokomaha ake?

More boys play touch rugby than girls. How many more?

3

51

4. Tokohia ngā tamariki e kauhoe ana?

How many children go swimming?

3

76

Total score:

6

7

4-5

29

2-3

35

0-1

29

Commentary:

About one third of the students scored more than three (out of six).