

NEMP Mathematics Survey, 2005

Instructions: Put a ring around the answer you want to choose or write your answer on the line.

The teacher will write the  answers for you if you want.

1. How much do you like doing maths at school?

2. Would you like to do more, the same or less maths at school?

more

about the same

less

3. What maths activities do you like doing at school?

(Tick up to 3.)

work in my maths book

doing maths worksheets

using maths textbooks

using a calculator

using equipment

maths tests

maths competitions

maths problems and puzzles

explaining my maths ideas

4. There are some very important things a person needs to learn or do to be good at maths. What are some of them?

(See if you can think of 3.)

Not to be copied

5. How good do you think you are at maths?

6. How good does your teacher think you are at maths?

don't know

7. How good does your Mum or Dad think you are at maths?

don't know

8. How much do you like doing maths on your own?

9. How much do you like doing maths with others?

10. How much do you like helping others with their maths?

11. How do you feel about doing things in maths
you haven't tried before?

12. How much do you like doing maths in your own time
(not at school)?

13. What are some interesting things you do in maths
in your own time?

14. If you have some really hard things to do in maths,
what do you do?

15. How do you feel about learning or doing more maths as you get older?

Not to be copied